

Corporate Values

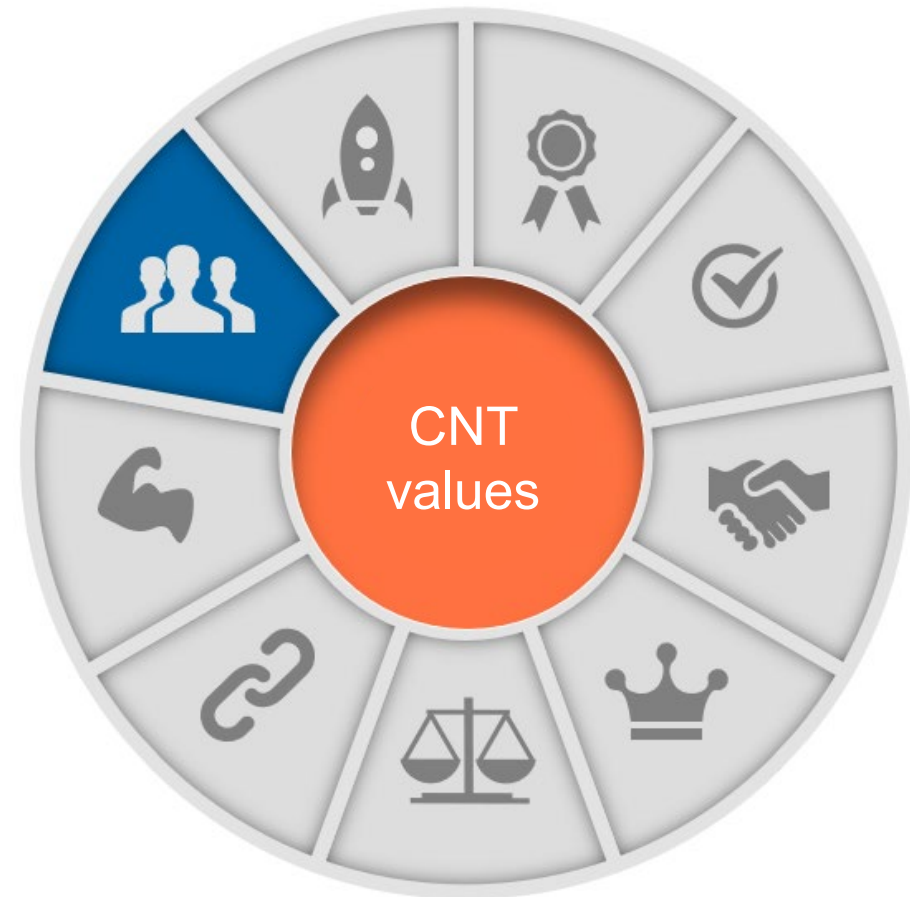

CNT Management
Consulting AG

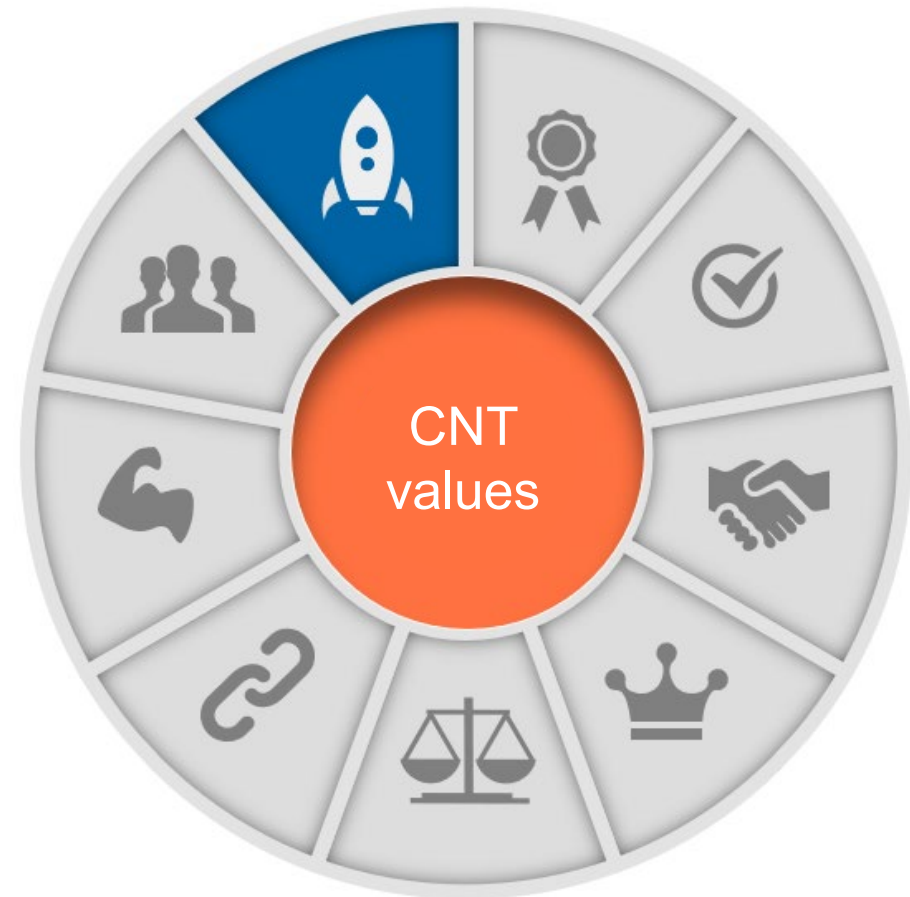

Employees are our asset

For us, company development means investing in professional and personal development of our team.

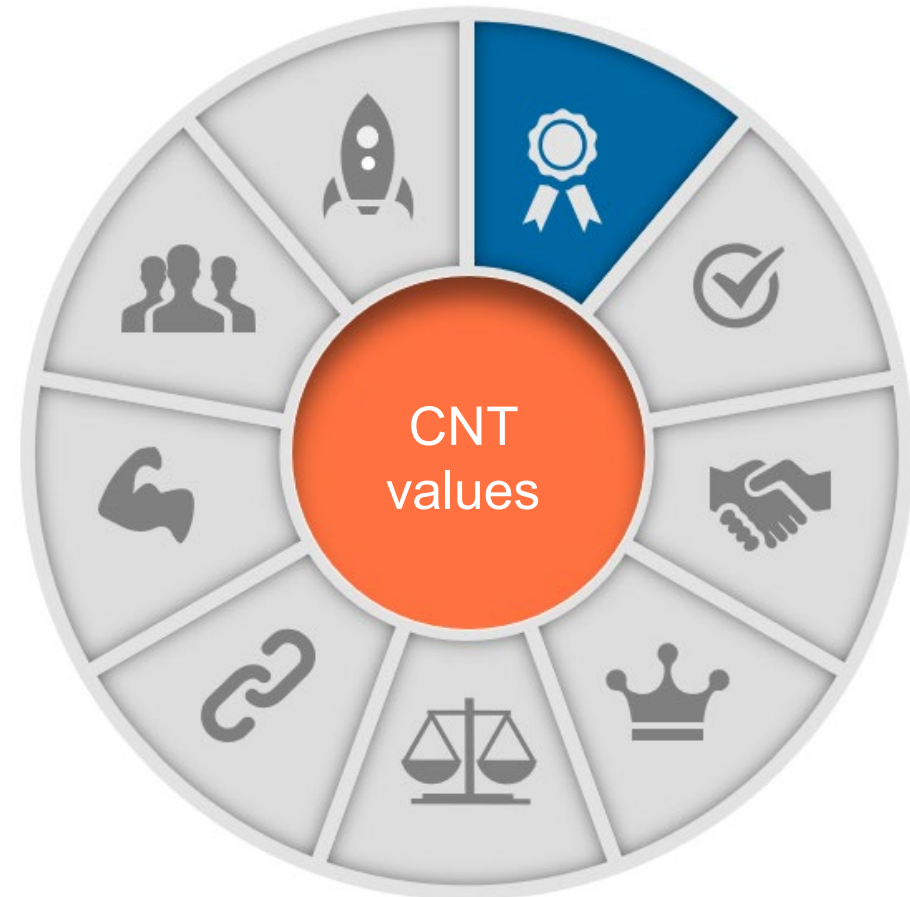

New Technologies and Solutions

Proven, sustainable solutions and the use of new technologies and innovative methods guarantee optimal results for our customers.

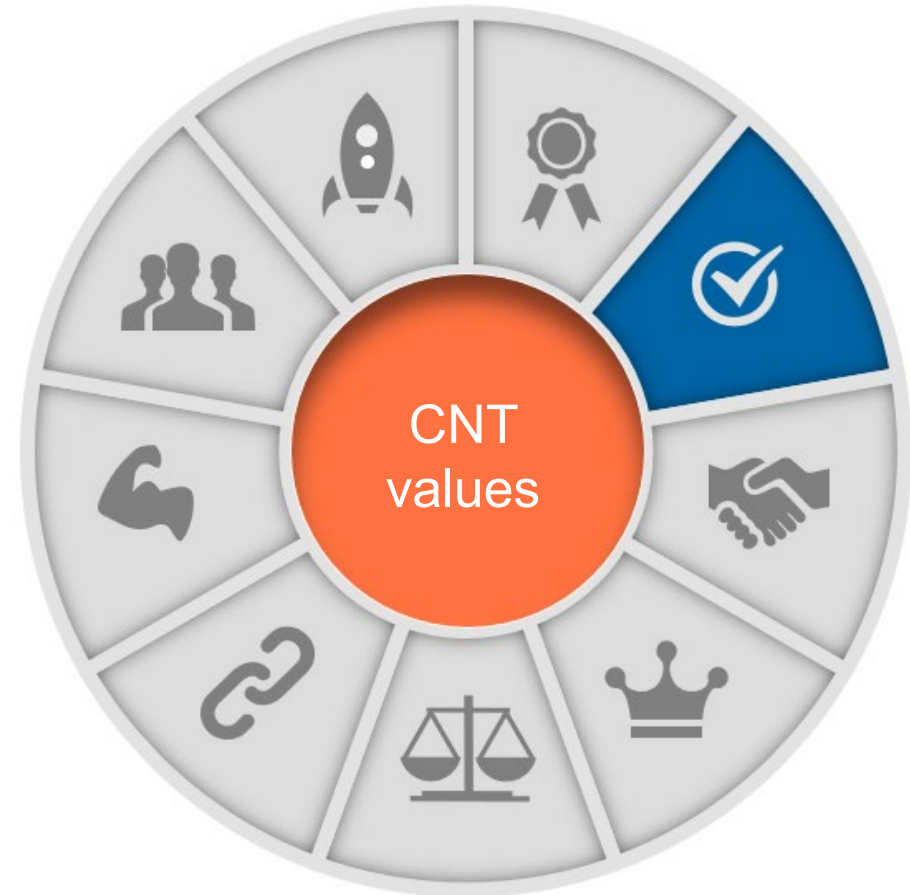

Partnership and trust

We maintain relationships with our partners on the basis of trust and high quality of cooperation over many years.

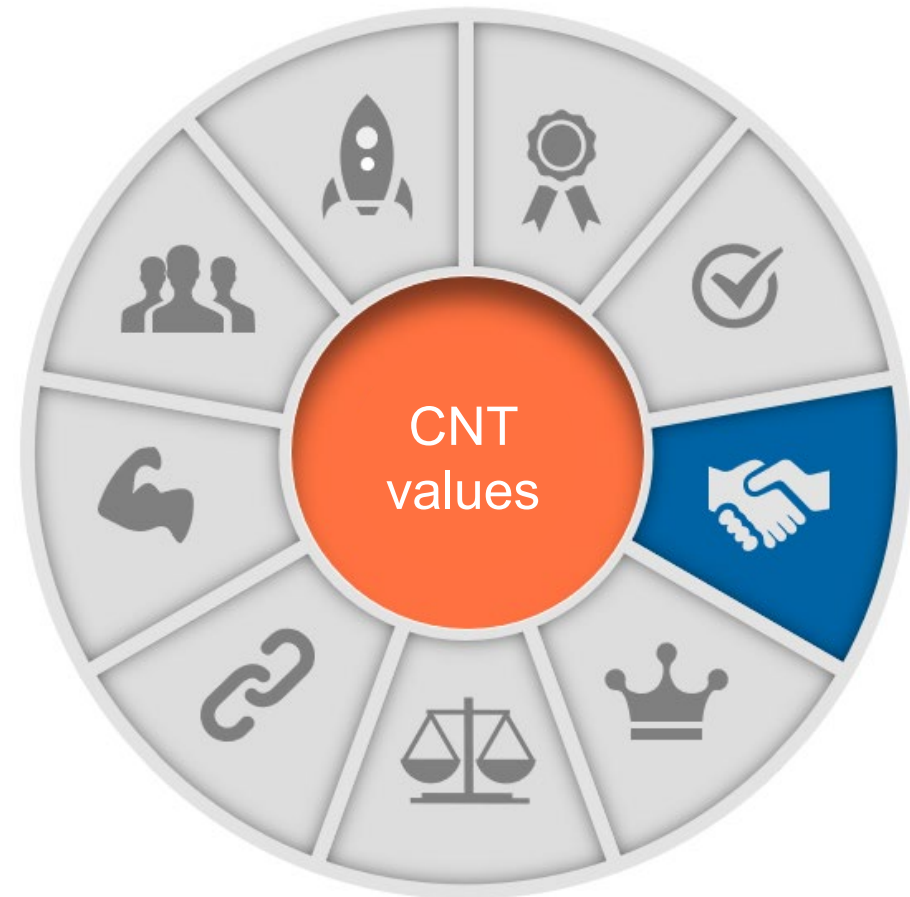

Consulting expertise

Our goal- and solution-oriented action and the high quality standards of our experienced consulting team create long-term customer satisfaction.

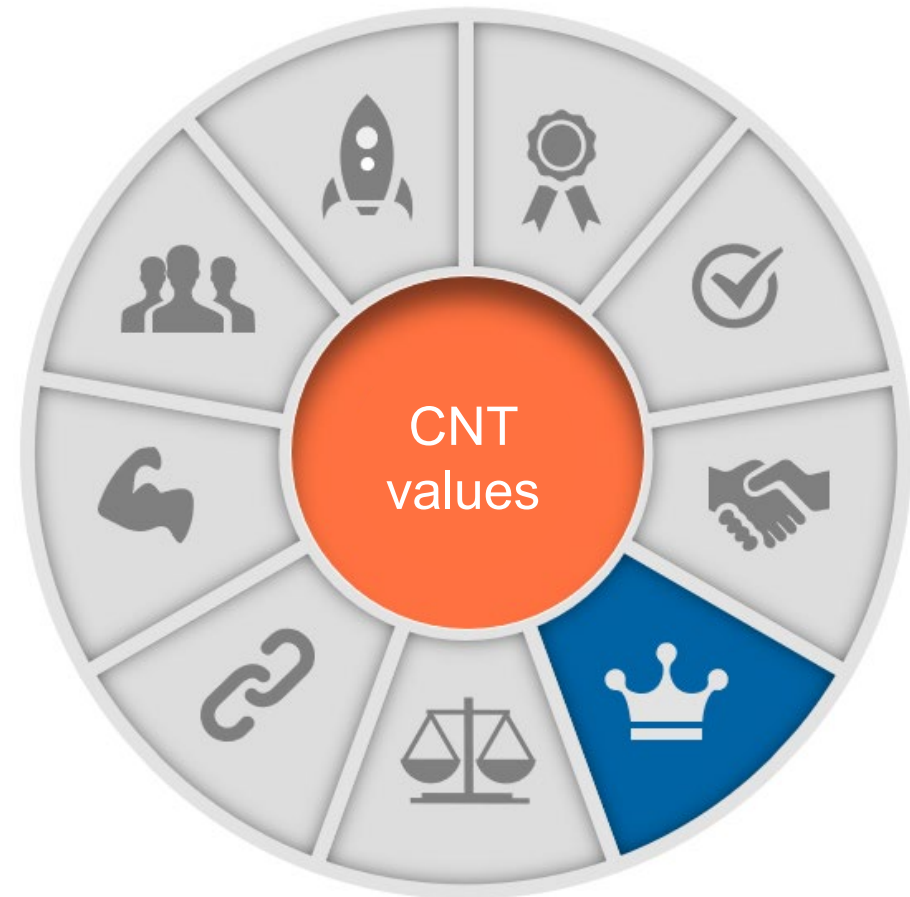

Gain and confirm confidence

Through our power of implementation, the commitment in the projects and the continuity in the customer relationship, we confirm the trust placed in us.

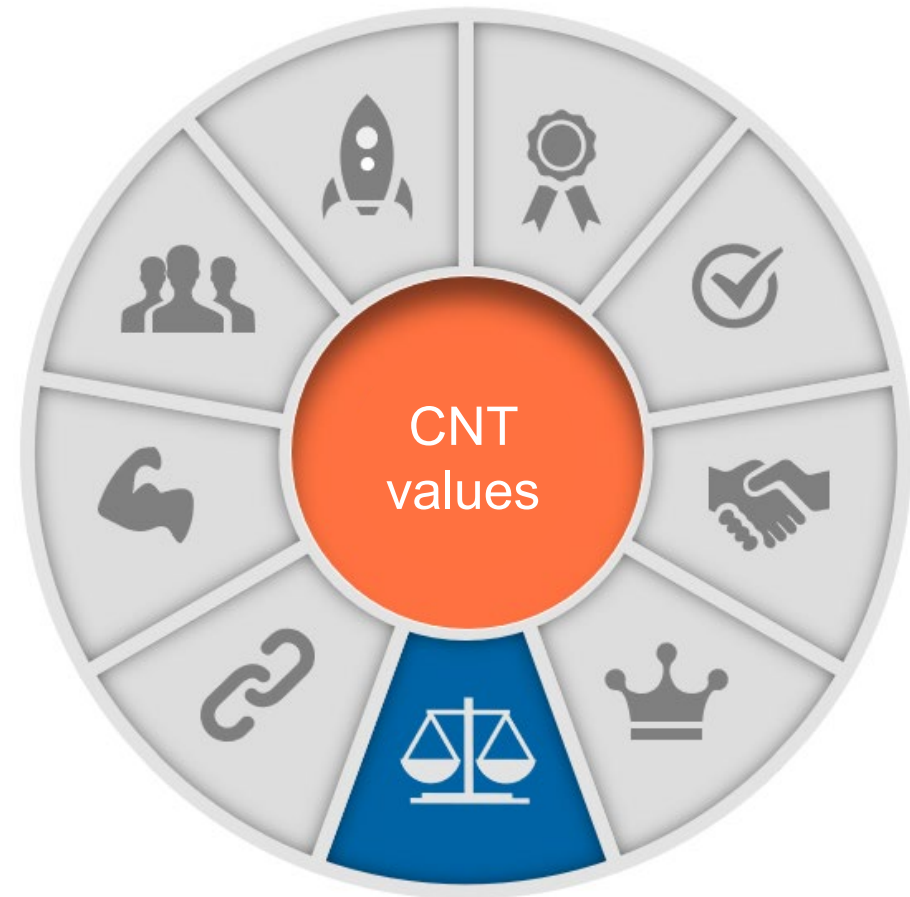

Understanding customers

Our understanding of our clients' business, their nature and their processes forms the basis for the successful implementation of our projects.

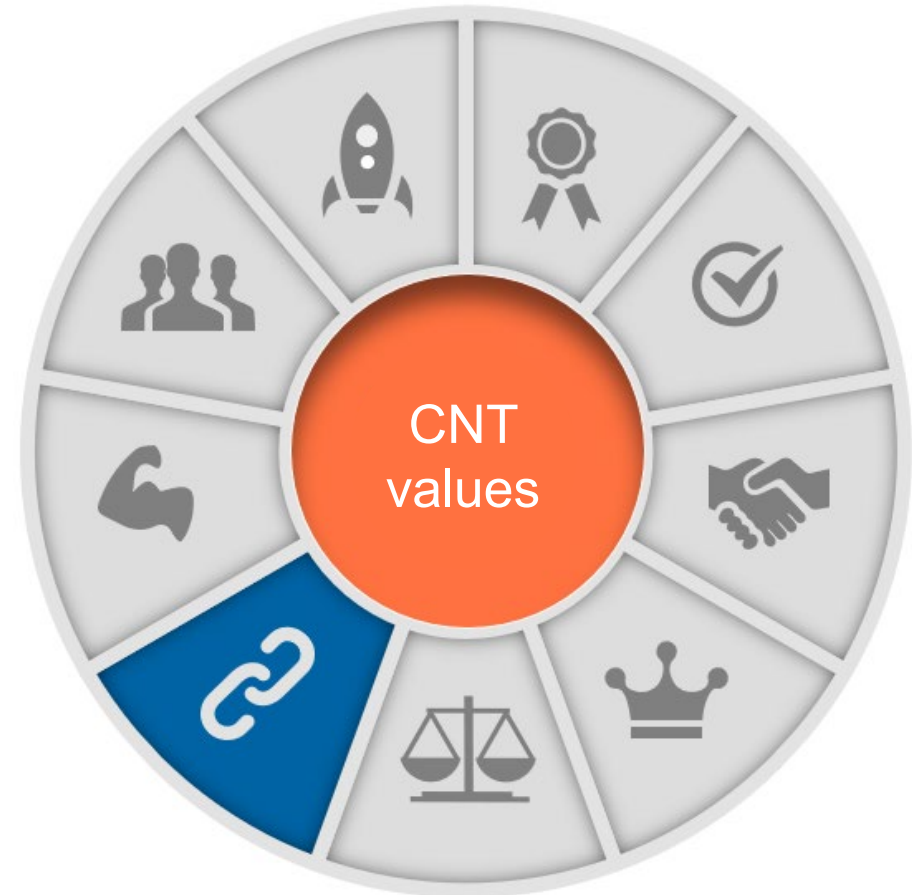

Loyalty and respect

Commitment to the company, appreciation in dealing with each other and mutual respect are important to us.

Team spirit

Mutual support, sharing of knowledge and short communication channels make our team strong and are the basis for mutual success.

Commitment and performance

We promote dedication and reward above-average performance in the company.

